

New Board Member Joins Eco Supplies Europe AB

Hamburg 2010-02-04

Eco Supplies today announced the decision to strengthen the company's board of directors. Mr. Bo Wänghammar is joining the board as of February 2.

Mr. Wänghammar is currently the COO of bwin Games AB in Sweden, a division with 400 employees and part of the world's leading online gaming company. Mr. Wänghammar has extensive senior management experience from various media, telecom and ecommerce-internet companies. Moreover, he has served as Chairman and held several board positions in various e-commerce ventures.

"I am happy to be a part of the continued growth of Eco Supplies, building on the environmentally friendly orientation of the company. Eco Supplies has a proven and profitable concept and there are numerous promising possibilities to expand the customer offering. The board will focus on guiding the company in making the right choices at the right time, and with continued superior execution, and I am proud to be able to contribute in this", says Bo Wänghammar.

Mr. Svante Kumlin, Chairman of Eco Supplies, comments:

"Mr. Wänghammar has an impressive track record from multinational corporations such as bwin, Metro International, Telenor (Telenordia), the Bonnier Group, etc. He has held senior positions within a very wide range of industries such as Online Gaming, Media, Telecommunications, Senior Management Consulting, and he is used to work in fast growing and dynamic companies. Mr. Wänghammar has a unique experience in the sense that he has held diverse 'area positions', ranging from Controller, Chief Financial Officer, Marketing Manager, Business Development Director, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Executive Officer. I therefore have no doubt that Mr. Wänghammar will add a lot of value to the Company and it is great news for Eco Supplies, as well as for its shareholders, that Bo has decided to join the Board of Directors".
